

ORGANIC SOY SAUCE POWDER

Versatile tastemaker & adaptable base

Whether it's a spice mix, marinade, sauce, dressing, soup or coating for nuts, our organic soy sauce powder (shoyu powder) is a vegetarian all-rounder for dry and liquid applications. But how does our product differ from the competition?

- ✓ Vacuum drying preserves color, minerals and flavors.*
- ✓ No trickle additives are used.
- ✓ No clumping of the powder occurs.*
- ✓ Comes from controlled organic farming
- ✓ Light brown color of the powder in dry mixtures also visually conveys the intensity of the product's own flavor.*

Would you like to know more about the soy sauce powder? We are very pleased about your interest and will be happy to support you with any queries or other concerns.
